

National Master Guardian Star Achievement Award

Receiving the Center for Guardianship Certification's National Master Guardian Certification demonstrates the guardian's knowledge of advanced guardianship concepts and ethics and being on the cutting edge of guardianship issues.

A National Master Guardian Star is a National Master Guardian and a member of the National Guardianship Association, who also has an affiliation with his/her state association. This individual is nominated by their peers to be recognized as an example for other guardians.

Vicki Alkire, NMG
Sarasota, FL
2008

Julia Nack, NMG
Columbus, OH
2007

Carolyn Little, NMG
Springfield, Missouri
2006

Frederick D. Floreth, NMG
Litchfield, Illinois
2005

Gary Beagle, NMG
Vancouver, Washington
2004

Lexie Lamborn, NMG
Anacortes, Washington
2003

Colleen Colton, NMG
Ft. Worth, Texas
2002